Re: Choir Members:

Clayton K. Smith,
3 Wright Place,
New Brunswick, N.J.

Smith is employed by the New Brunswick Trust Company and at the present time is off on his vacation.

I saw him at his residence this morning. He informed me that he has been a member of St. John's choir for the last ten years. He was well acquainted with Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills and was in their company frequently in connection with choir work and social functions around the church.

He says that at the various social affairs Dr. Hall would dance with Mrs. Mills the same as he did with any of the other women present. That he never saw anything which would tend to indicate an intimate relationship between the two parties. Further that he had never heard any talk linking their names. In fact, Rev. Hall's attention to Mrs. Mills was the same as that shown by him to other members of the choir and church.

Respectfully submitted:
